EXPERIENTIAL ASTROLOGY DAY CLOPHILL

What is it?

The major planets of our solar system are having a powerful influence on our world, and 2012 sees a rare alignment known as the 'finger of fate' which occurs at the time of the Winter solstice 21st December. The alignment of Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto, suggests a time when Spiritual knowledge is available to us and that if understood it can be applied in our everyday life. Derek will use the floor chart to explore this.

Why?

Jupiter travels through Gemini the sign that governs information and understanding in 2012. This affords us the opportunity to open our minds to the inspiration and insights that Jupiter can provide. Jupiter governs the spiritual search and in Gemini we could find the answers we are looking for. Working with the participants individually and as a group Derek will guide you in exploring how you may benefit from the coming alignment.

What do I need?

You will need a birth chart in order to experience what the planetary influences mean for you specifically rather than generally. Your chart will be prepared in advance for you when you book. Refreshments will be provided, but please bring your own lunch.
